

Join the Watershed Stewards Program

Join a team of committed individuals throughout California engaged in fisheries, watershed protection, community outreach and education, and restoration projects!

- Spend 10.5 months (1700 hours) working alongside natural resource professionals with one of WSP's 25 organizations within California.
- The Watershed Stewards Program (WSP) is currently accepting applications for Service Year 26 (October 1, 2019 – August 14, 2020)!
- Earn a monthly stipend of $1,905 as well as an AmeriCorps education award
- No-cost health care
- Student loan forbearance and repayment on interest accrued while in the program
- Wilderness First Aid/CPR and Water Safety training
- Uniform and field gear provided

Qualifications:

- Open to people 21+ with 25 credits of college-level science or 6 months of equivalent experience with fisheries, habitat restoration, invasive removal, etc.

Applications due June 28th, 2019 • Program begins October 1st, 2019

For more information and the application, visit:

<https://ccc.ca.gov/what-we-do/conservation-programs/watershed-stewards-program/member-applicants/>

The Russian River Salmon and Steelhead Monitoring Program is a WSP placement site that conducts cutting edge salmon and steelhead monitoring studies on the Russian River in Northern California. Monitoring activities include snorkeling, backpack electrofishing, trapping, tagging, environmental surveys, hiking, climbing, bush-whacking and conducting reconnaissance surveys on 70+ streams throughout the Russian River watershed in beautiful Sonoma and Mendocino counties. We are looking for two enthusiastic members for this upcoming season.

For more information: <https://caseagrants.ucsd.edu/project/coho-salmon-monitoring>

