

Environmental Justice and the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta

A Brown Bag Webinar Series Presented by the Delta Science Program and California Sea Grant

This monthly series will touch on themes of environmental justice relevant to issues in California and the Delta. Scholars and public service experts will speak on the importance of environmental justice as it pertains to state water management, climate resilience, indigenous stewardship, and management of the Delta. Webinars are free and open to the public with registration.

Water Justice

September 8, 2021 | 12:00 – 1:00 PM PDT

“Linking local, regional and state responses for implementing the Human Right to Water”

Laurel Firestone is one of five members of the State Water Resources Control Board, which is responsible for protecting water quality and water supplies in California from source to tap.

Kristin Dobbin is a postdoctoral researcher at the University of California, Los Angeles. She researches the role of governance in creating, perpetuating, and solving drinking water disparities in California.
